

NIHR Oxford DEC 2-day course
Diagnostic Evidence Workshop
 1-2 October 2015, Worcester College, Oxford

Day 1, Thursday 1 October 2015

Teacher

Organisation

9:00-9:40	Registration and Welcome
9:40 – 10:20	Tests as part of a clinical pathway	Dr Ann Van den Bruel	Oxford Uni
10:20-11:00	Aligning research and development with clinical needs	Dr Philip Turner	Oxford Uni
11:00-11:30	Coffee break
11:30-12:30	Different forms of evidence for different types of questions	Dr Ann Van den Bruel	Oxford Uni
12:30-13:30	Lunch
13:30-15:00	Workshop: How to avoid low quality studies	Dr Annette Pluddemann and Dr Ann Van den Bruel	Oxford Uni
15:00-15:30	Coffee break
15:30-17:00	Searching for existing evidence to support regulatory approval and other purposes - workshop	Dr Nia Roberts	Oxford Uni
17:00-19:30	Free time
19:30-21:30	Formal 3-course dinner

Day 2, Friday 2 October 2015

Teacher

Organisation

9:00-10:00	Basic stats in diagnostic studies	Dr Jason Oke	Oxford Uni
10:00-11:00	Evidence for regulatory purposes: CE marking and European IVD Directive	Steve Lee	MHRA
11:00-11:30	Coffee break
11:30-12:30	Evidence for implementation in routine clinical practice – NICE evaluations	Dr Sarah Byron	NICE
12:30-13:30	Lunch
13:30-14:10	Possibilities of routinely available data	Dr Antonis Kousoulis	MHRA
14.10-14.50	Using evidence to support the business case: the route to adoption	Professor Chris Price	Oxford Uni
14.50-15.20	Coffee break
15:20-16:00	Funding for diagnostic test development/opportunities for collaboration with academia	Ravi Chana	NOCRI
16.00-16:15	Closing remarks	Dr Ann Van den Bruel	Oxford Uni