

NIHR Oxford DEC 2-day course
Diagnostic Evidence Workshop
 27-28 September, Worcester College, Oxford

Day 1, Tuesday 27 September 2016		Tutor	Organisation
9:00 – 9:40	Registration and Welcome
9:40 – 10:20	Tests as part of a clinical pathway	Dr Gail Hayward	Oxford Uni
10:20-11:00	Aligning research and development with clinical needs	Dr Philip Turner	Oxford Uni
11:00-11:30	Coffee break
11:30-12:30	Different forms of evidence for different types of questions	Prof Ann Van den Bruel	Oxford Uni
12:30-13:30	Lunch
13:30-15:00	Workshop: How to avoid low quality studies	Dr Gail Hayward and Prof Ann Van den Bruel	Oxford Uni
15:00-15:30	Coffee break
15:30-17:00	Searching for existing evidence to support regulatory approval and other purposes - workshop	Dr Nia Roberts	Oxford Uni
17:00-19:30	Free time
19:30-21:30	Three course dinner

Day 2, Wednesday 28 September		Tutor	Organisation
9.00-10.00	Evidence for regulatory purposes: CE marking and European IVD Directive	Rosalind Polley	MHRA
10.00-11.00	Basic statistics for diagnostic medicine	Dr Jason Oke	Oxford Uni
11:00-11:30	Coffee break
11:30-12:30	Evidence for implementation in routine clinical practice – NICE evaluations	Frances Nixon	NICE
12:30-13:30	Lunch
13:30-14:10	Possibilities of routinely available data	Dr Antonis Kousoulis	MHRA
14.10-14.50	Using evidence to support the business case: the route to adoption	Prof Chris Price	Oxford Uni
14.50-15.10	Coffee break
15:10-15.50	Funding for diagnostic test development/opportunities for collaboration with academia	Ian Newington	NOCRI
15.50-16:00	Closing remarks	Prof Ann Van den Bruel	Oxford Uni