NIHR Oxford DEC 2-day course
Diagnostic Evidence Workshop
28-29 September 2017, Worcester College, Oxford

	Day 1, Thursday 28 September	Tutor	Organisation
9:00-9.30	Registration and tea/coffee (foyer)
9.30-9.40	Welcome	Prof Ann Van den Bruel	Oxford Uni
9:40 – 10:20	Tests as part of a clinical pathway	Dr Gail Hayward	Oxford Uni
10:20-11:00	Aligning research and development with clinical needs	Dr Philip Turner	Oxford Uni
11:00-11:30	Coffee break (foyer)
11:30-12:30	Different forms of evidence for different types of questions	Prof Ann Van den Bruel	Oxford Uni
12:30-13:30	Lunch (foyer)
13:30-15:00	Workshop: How to avoid low quality studies	Dr Gail Hayward and Prof Ann Van den Bruel	Oxford Uni
15:00-15:30	Coffee break (foyer)
15:30-17:00	Searching for existing evidence to support regulatory approval and other purposes - workshop	Dr Nia Roberts	Oxford Uni
17:00-19:30	Free time
19:30-21:30	Three course dinner (dining hall)

	Day 2, Friday 29 September	Tutor	Organisation
9.00-10.30	Basic statistics for diagnostic medicine	Dr Jason Oke	Oxford Uni
10.30-11.00	Coffee break
11.00-11.45	Evidence for regulatory purposes: CE marking and European IVD Directive	Doris-Ann Williams	BIVDA
11:45-12.30	Evidence for implementation in routine clinical practice – NICE evaluations	Chris Hyde	Exeter Uni
12:30-13:30	Lunch (dining hall)
13:30-14:10	Possibilities of routinely available data	Tim Holt	Oxford Uni
14.10-14.50	Health Economic Modelling	Lucy Abel	Oxford Uni
14.50-15.10	Coffee break (foyer)
15:10-15.50	Funding for diagnostic test development/opportunities for collaboration with academia	Ian Newington	NOCRI
15.50-16:00	Closing remarks	Prof Ann Van den Bruel	Oxford Uni