

NIHR Oxford DEC 2-day course
Diagnostic Evidence Workshop
 1-2 October 2015, Worcester College, Oxford

Day 1, Thursday 1 October 2015

		Teacher	Location
9:00-9:40	Registration and Welcome		Linbury foyer
9:40 – 10:20	Tests as part of a clinical pathway	Dr Ann Van den Bruel	Linbury Room
10:20-11:00	Aligning research and development with clinical needs	Dr Philip Turner	Linbury Room
11:00-11:30	Coffee break		Linbury foyer
11:30-12:30	Different forms of evidence for different types of questions	Dr Ann Van den Bruel	Linbury Room
12:30-13:30	Lunch		Dining hall
13:30-15:00	Workshop: How to avoid low quality studies	Dr Annette Pluddemann and Dr Ann Van den Bruel	Seminar A/Linbury Room
15:00-15:30	Coffee break		Linbury foyer
15:30-17:00	Searching for existing evidence to support regulatory approval and other purposes - workshop	Dr Nia Roberts	Linbury Room
17:00-19:30	Free time
19:30-21:30	Formal 3-course dinner		Dining hall

Day 2, Friday 2 October 2015

		Teacher	Location
9:00-10:00	Basic stats in diagnostic studies	Dr Beth Shinkins	Linbury Room
10:00-11:00	Evidence for regulatory purposes: CE marking and European IVD Directive	Steve Lee	Linbury Room
11:00-11:30	Coffee break		Linbury foyer
11:30-12:30	Evidence for implementation in routine clinical practice – NICE evaluations	Dr Sarah Byron	Linbury Room
12:30-13:30	Lunch		Dining hall
13:30-14:10	Possibilities of routinely available data	Dr Antonis Kousoulis	Confirmed
14:50-15:10	Coffee break		Linbury foyer
15:10-15:50	Funding for diagnostic test development/opportunities for collaboration with academia	Ravi Chana	Linbury Room
15:50-16:00	Closing remarks	Dr Ann Van den Bruel	Linbury Room